

Letter to the Editor Template

A letter to the editor is a highly persuasive genre through which the writer would like to effect change. It is selective in the arguments chosen and emotive in its language.

Title:

eye-catching identification of the issue

Thesis:

the position the writer takes on the issue

Arguments:

points are made and elaborated on, sometimes with supporting evidence

Recommendation:

an action may be proposed