You can help Spott the spotted python by entering Spott's Snake Safety competition. Spott lives at the Wet Tropics Management Authority. She visits schools around the region to help teach children about the importance of the Wet Tropics World Heritage Area and the amazing wildlife that lives here.

Individuals are encouraged to:

- Colour in the snake picture
- Write a 'snake safety message' in the speech bubble provided

Themes:

- Your message should teach others how to act safely and responsibly around snakes in the wild
- Your message should encourage others to respect our native wildlife

Enter the competition to win a Breakfast with the Birds family pass to The Rainforest Habitat Wildlife Sanctuary

- Prizes will be judged in one category.
- One winner will win a family pass (2 adults and 2 children) to The Rainforest Habitat Wildlife Sanctuary for Breakfast with the Birds. Two runners up will win a family pass for entry. Terms and conditions apply: see bottom of page.
- A selection of entries will be displayed at Rainforest Habitat, the Wet Tropics website and in the Wet Tropics e-newsletter.
- The winners will be announced on Friday 6th August 2010.
- As a condition of entry, artworks may be used for World Heritage educational and promotional purposes.
