

WET TROPICS
WILD TALKS

SATURDAY

5

MARCH

Outstanding and Irreplaceable

The theme of this series of five live presentations is 'The Wet Tropics World Heritage Area - Outstanding and Irreplaceable'.

Traditional Owners, and World Heritage and wildlife experts will discuss what makes the Wet Tropics so significant.

PROGRAM

- What makes the Wet Tropics so Outstanding and Irreplaceable to this Traditional Owner : Leah Talbot ~ Traditional Owner
 - Universal Values : Terry Carmichael ~ Wildlife Expert
 - MORNING TEA: 10am
 - World Heritage Listing ~ is it a good thing?
Peter Hitchcock AM ~ World Heritage Specialist
 - Wet Tropics Endemism ~ what animals are only found in the Wet Tropics
Craig Ward ~ Published Author
 - Close-up Wildlife Experience - brought to you by Zoo to You
-

COST: FREE - Inc. a light morning tea | DOORS: 9am to 12.30pm | VENUE: Cairns Botanic Gardens Visitor Centre

MORE INFORMATION: www.wettropics.gov.au | www.facebook.com/WetTropicsWorldHeritageArea

Outstanding and Irreplaceable is presented as part of the Wet Tropics Management Authority Wild Talks series being held quarterly at the Cairns Botanic Garden Visitor Centre.